

SIEF III Summer School,
Siena, online edition 25/06- 4/07 2020
Heritage, tradition, identity. A case study of the Palio di Siena

	CEST Time
25th/june	13:00-13:45	Opening Welcome messages
26th/june	14.15-15:00	Heritage making. Challenge and opportunity for folklore studies	Valdimar Hafstein, University of Iceland
	13:00-13:45	The Palio di Siena : an Italian festival	Duccio Balestracci, University of Siena
29th/june	14:15-15:00	The Italian Heritage way and the Palio di Siena case	Alessandra Broccolini, Sapienza University of Rome
	13:00-13:45	The Heritage Machine : the Maragateria case study	Pablo Alonso Gonzalez, Spanish National Research Council
30th/june	14.15-15:00	Heritage effects seen from the ground.	Michel Dylan Foster, University of California-Davis
	13:00-13:45	Tradition and modernity : the inappropriate legacies	Laurent S. Fournier, Aix-Marseille University
1rd/july	14.15-15:00	Communal Traditions as Vernacular Theorizing	Dorothy Noyes, Ohio State University
	13:00-13:45	Re-invented tradition and heritage safeguarding	Dario Nardini, University of Florence
2rd/july	14.15-15:00	New Spaces for Old Traditions: The Palio`s and Contrade`s Coming-to-the-Web	Tobias Boos, Free University of Bozen-Bolzano
	13:00-13:45	Being in a place, belonging to a place. Identity, locality , history and politics	Berardino Palumbo, University of Messina
3rd/july	14.15-15:00	Marketing the local identity. The case of neo-tarantismo in Puglia	Giovanni Pizza, University of Perugia
	13:00-13:45	The neo-traditions as tools for local identity making	Daniele Parbuono, University of Perugia
4rd/july	14.15-15:00	Being and Behaving : living in Siena under the global gaze	Fabio Mugnaini/ Pietro Meloni, University of Siena
	13:30-15:00	Conclusive remarks

Lectures are composed of two part : 1) a pre-recorded topic presentation, or other relevant material, summing up to 1 hour, that will be let available with one day in advance ; 2) an online- live lecture, interacting with students.

26th june/3rd july	Parallel Seminars coordinated by Ewa Klekot, University of Warsaw and Thomas McKean, University of Aberdeen; interviews, focus groups with Palio' or Contrada' actors, virtual visits to Contrade' premises and museums, coordinated by Fabio Mugnaini and Pietro Meloni
--------------------	--

Seminars activities have been divided in two segments because of the time zone of the students' homes; the CEST morning-time seminar (Sunrise Seminar) is offered to North America students, plus a quote of EU students; the afternoon seminar (Sunset Seminar) is offered to China students plus the remaining quote of EU students. The composition of the two groups aims to maximize the growth of a learning international community.

The Summer School online edition will be possible thanks to the technical support of University of Siena and to the SIEF-NomadIT convention, to the collaboration of Scuola di Specializzazione in Beni Demoetnoantropologici, University of Perugia, to the administrative support of Dipartimento di Scienze Storiche e dei Beni Culturali, University of Siena Local organizer and general coordinator Fabio Mugnaini, University of Siena